NEW YEAR, NEW NEWSLETTER

Hey everyone! The newsletter is back! We hope you're keeping warm, safe, and healthy during this off-season. We are very excited about the upcoming season and have A LOT of new changes and programs in the works. We're hoping the 2020 season is the best yet despite its the year's rocky start.

First and foremost, we have a new newsletter design and want your help naming it! If you'd like to participate, please let us know what you think our newsletter should be called. You can enter your submissions here:

<https://forms.gle/WYgHQPu93NFjtuwT8>

We'll be making a selection for the April newsletter!

As of now, Andersons Creek will be opening for the season on May 1st (weather permitted)! The Pro Shop will be opening a bit earlier to get ready for the season so keep your eyes peeled to our social media for more information!

Be sure to join us on May 2nd for our Open House to get your membership and receive your membership package.

a note from our golf pro:

Hi folks, hard to believe we are about a month away from Masters week. Oh wait, the tournament is postponed until further notice. Since we will have no golf to watch on television or any other sport for that matter, it might be a good time to consider getting your body ready for the golf season. With that being said, I don't expect everyone to hit the weights hard and try to bulk up like Bryson Dechambeau or Brooks Koepka. Stretching is much more beneficial to the everyday golfer.

Follow this link for some great stretches to get you ready for the golf season and to help you play your best!

PRO SHOP

The 2020 golf season is just around the corner and the Andersons Creek Pro Shop is excited to bring lots of new products & services available to our membership.

We have a new partnership with Levelwear to provide great affordable products with new fashion and decorations. We are in the process of doing some renovations to the pro shop with help from Megan Scott of Levelwear Canada.

Also we are excited to announce we have acquired a Callaway fitting cart. This is an outstanding tool to help golfers get the proper equipment to fit there game! A fitting schedule will be posted this spring or you can book a private fitting by emailing Ben at ben@islandcoastalgolf.com

Be sure to check out our Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/andersonscreek> for more product previews.

Anyone that has interest in any corporate orders we are happy to offer discounted prices with Levelwear,

Callaway, Columbia, Cutter & Buck and many more. Email Ben for more info ben@islandcoastalgolf.com

TURF NEWS

March is a hard month to predict when prepping for spring maintenance. The weather forecast is unpredictable and it can sometimes feel like one step forward and two back when removing snow and ice from the greens. You try your hardest, use your best judgment, follow your instincts and hope for the best. I'm hoping for green grass on the other side of the ice and snow layer.

There is still a lot of snow out there on the course and we have had only a few days of melting. The greens became covered with ice sometime between Christmas eve and boxing day with the rain that came and froze quickly. Since then layers have melted and formed with snowfall and freeze-thaw cycles. We made a few efforts to break up a solid ice layer that had formed on the top shelf of 8 green this winter. We got mixed results as there is a 4 inch thick layer of ice currently. Fortunately we managed to expose the turf from the ice layer in a few areas that I'm hoping promotes enough air exchange for the green to survive the winter. Time will tell.

Some steps we've taken this fall to have our greens come out of winter healthy and ready to grow are:

- Spraying greens with a dark green pigment in late November designed to attract the sun in the early spring and increase soil temperatures

- Sod cutting trenches and installing black drain pipe to attract sunlight and use the trenches to move water off the green during melts

Our turf team is eagerly awaiting the snowmelt and hoping to get to work soon to prep the course for the upcoming 2020 golf season! We're hoping to provide our members and guests with excellent playing conditions from start to finish and we look forward to seeing you all out there this year!

A friendly reminder to be patient with our maintenance employees at the beginning of the year. The to-do list is large and the time is limited. I hope we all have a great season!
